A Note From The Teacher

Hello,
I hope you are all enjoying this cozy weather. Your students have been working hard in the classroom. We will have our 1st classroom store on Friday to reward students for their hard-earned money! I am still working on updating grades, but I will send an email later this week when the grades are accurate. Have a good week!

Field Trip

Hello! I am starting the planning process for a field trip. Most likely it will be on a Tuesday. I will have additional information to send home next week with an exact date. I will be looking for drivers and chaperones. We will be going to Huber Orchard. My class had a great time last year so I am looking forward to going again.

Happy Birthday!
